Small Business with big ideas?

Become an Associate Affiliate of CITeR

Now your small business can become a part of the most dynamic discovery and innovation environment in biometrics, identity, and security – the Center for Identification Technology Research (CITeR). Through our New Associate Affiliate membership status, your small business can network with industry and government affiliates to cooperatively define CITeR's academic research portfolio, benefit from early access to research results as they unfold, and realize competitive advantage from early research adoption.
